Winter League Banquet Sign-ups

Please call, email, or sign up at the counter for the Winter League Banquet. We need to know either way if you can make it or not. Must sign up by Tuesday, April 7.

Date is Saturday, April 18th at 6 p.m. at Deer Run on Cascade Road

Please consider sending in your tax deductible $100 donation to help sustain our youth shooting program. You will get a great lapel pin to wear on your shooting bag or vest. These kids are the future of the shooting sports.

From the Manager....

I would like to Thank Everyone who shot the Winter League this year. We keep growing, this year we had 260 plus shooters. I hope everyone had a great experience over the last 4 months. We just got done installing all new "Promatic Signature Skeet Machines". This will make for better targets next year. But, if you think about that it takes away one more excuse!!! (lol)

Managers' Report

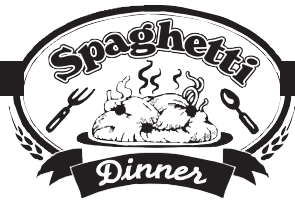

Tim reported the Orange Crush competed in the Grand Blanc shoot in all 3 age categories and they WON GOLD in each group of Skeet and Clay. Silver in 2 of Skeet and 1 Bronze. An exceptional display of shooting, congratulations.

At Plaid Shirt night a 110 tickets were sold. The Board wanted to thank all the volunteers and members who worked very hard and were complimented by members. A special thanks to Julie, who cooked for 7 hours and the dinner was truly delicious. And a special thanks to all individuals who donated the wild game for this event.

Membership is at 854.

The club purchased 3 New Promatic machines. Three old machines were sold. The Hilo was also sold.

A used commercial ice machine was purchased for the club.

SCTP Annual Homemade Spaghetti Fundraiser Dinner

Tuesday, April 21st 5:30 to 8:30 pm

Cost is $10.00 a Person

Let's make this the biggest dinner yet!!!

Everyone Welcome - Members, Families and Friends

New Business

Greg Bego presented a FIVE STAR rating system for the club to be used as a self-evaluation. He rated the club as a FOUR. Signage was one of the categories to upgrade as well as a few other items. A good way for the Club to keep evaluating itself for improvement.

MUCC Report.

Pat reported 10 kids applied for the MUCC Scholarship Camp program and 5 kids were selected at random. These scholarships will grow the relationship between MUCC and KCCL.

The 2015 MUCC convention is at the TREE TOPS in Gaylord, MI on June 18th, 19th and 20th

The District 5 MUCC meeting is March 26th.

Treasurer Report

Todd Cook reviewed the report, and a motion made and second and was approved to accept the report.

President Report

Vic wanted to thank Julie for an outstanding job of cooking for Plaid Shirt night dinner. He also wanted to thank all the volunteers and individuals who worked at the dinner.

Pistol Report

A safety video for Pistol, Rifle and Shotgun is in progress. The video will be available on our website when completed.

A daily check of all ranges was also suggested.

The shooting courses will be changed in a few weeks due to an upcoming shoot.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Have you ever shot Bowling Pins on a Gun Range???

CLUB CHAMPIONSHIPS

April 19, 2015 • 10 a.m. - 4 p.m.

All Winter League Shooters come out for the chance to be crowned "Club Champion" in your class. You will shoot 50 targets in winter skeet, trap or 5-stand. You will be shooting against other shooters that are in your class. The best score that day is who will be "Club Champion." It does not matter how you finished in your class in the regular winter league, it's all up to these 50 targets. The cost is $20 for your 50 targets and lunch. If you haven't ever shot in the Club Championship you won't want to miss out.

Winter League Important Dates:

- Banquet Date: Sat., April 18, 2015 (at Deer Run - 6 p.m.)
